

be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are votes for the regular election.

And in the event that said election shall be held at some time other than a regular election the poll books showing the registered voters of said Town last registered shall be used.

In the event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against the storm water sewer, bridge and drainage loan shall be in favor of the storm water sewer, bridge and drainage loan, then this Act shall be in full force and effect, but in event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against the storm water sewer, bridge and drainage loan then the Mayor and Common Council may submit the same questions in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said Town at the succeeding general elections in said Town.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect on the date of its passage.

Approved April 21, 1943.

CHAPTER 510.

(House Bill 373)

AN ACT to repeal Section 47 of Article 11 of Flack's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Banks and Trust Companies", sub-title "Savings Institutions", and re-enact the same, with amendments, so as to provide that the treasurer of any savings institution shall not be required to include in said written statement any check or voucher outstanding growing out of or emanating from any Christmas Savings Fund, Christmas Deposit or other similar deposits having a maturity of one year or less, of any such savings institution.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 47 of Article 11 of Flack's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Banks and Trust Companies", sub-title "Savings Institutions", be repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:
